

Year of the Water Dragon 2012

龍龍龍龍龍龍龍龍龍龍

Hi everyone,

Another year is going to past by soon, time really flies and it stops for nobody. Time, is like a handful of sand slowly slipping away and we should treasure whatever is left in our hands before it is all gone. Life is not about Horoscope because it only gives us a basic guideline to our Life Luck. Most importantly is that we all stay positive be it a good or bad year ahead, take every day as if there is no tomorrow and fulfil your dreams. Appreciate the people and things around you before they are gone. Work hard and play hardest, help others around you, live life to the fullest and be happy!

As I have predicted in the year of the Metal Rabbit (辛卯年) as not being not a very good year because it was filled with natural disasters etc. The world also saw the fall of two “Heavenly Stars” which will affect many people and also the economy. Japan was hit with Earthquake and Tsunami, shortly after that, the start of the flooding of Bangkok. These disasters have caused the people to lose their lives, houses, jobs and definitely causing lots of agony. The Europe economic crisis is only starting and struggling, if they do not recover by the end of 2011, they will be in a very bad situation in 2012 and affecting many parts of the entire world unless there is a miracle.

The earlier half of 2012 will still see many struggling to recover from economical situations and the aftermath of natural disasters. More disasters will hit the world and this will be a common world issue through the years to come.

Having said all the not so positive things, this is not the end of the world, yet! This is 2012, not in the movies as shown, but it might happen. However, this is the year of the Dragon, which will be an Auspicious Sign as it is one of the most powerful signs in the 12 Horoscope signs. By the later part of the year, situation will change for the better and we will see the sun after the dark clouds clear away.

This year will be the year of the Water Dragon (壬辰年). 壬 belongs to Water Element and 辰 belongs to Earth Element, despite the natural disaster and economical situation, it is still an auspicious year where there will be much career and business opportunities for us. This will also be an auspicious year for tying the nuptial knot and having the Dragon babies to add on to our family tree.

This is also a good year to start the hobby of keeping fishes. The Water and Earth element clash for the year can be soften when we merge all the elements together in harmony. Have an aquarium with more red or orange colour fishes, such as Tetras, Parrot fish, Goldfish, Discus, Arowana or Flowerhorn 花角 aka Luo Han fish. 風水羅漢魚. It would be even better if you can have some pebbles, driftwoods or plants in the aquarium before it will create a harmony for all the Five Elements. We can turn adverse situations into favourable situations with correct blending of elements and placing of the aquarium in good fengshui positions in the house.

Lastly, do remember to help save the world by being eco friendly, using less paper to save more trees and help others within your limits. All these kind acts will bring about good returns, far greater than you can imagine. Always take time off to rest and relax your tired mind, exercise regularly and eat healthily.

As the Dragon, Dog, Goat, Rabbit and Ox will conflict with “Tai Sui” (太岁) in 2012, there is a need to pray to “Tai Sui” (太岁) for health and good fortune, and also to be safe by avoiding misfortunes. The prayers can start on or after 04/02/2012 after 6.30pm. For those Animal Signs Rabbit, Rooster, Rat and Horse who prayed to “Tai Sui” (太岁) in 2011, please return prayer of thanks giving by or before 22/12/2011.

The Animal Signs that need to pray to Tiger God will be Dragon, Rat, Horse and Monkey. The prayers can be done on or after 05/03/2012 after 2pm.

Best wishes for a year blessed with Health, Wealth and Happiness!

我祝贺大家在新的—年里, 瑞氣滿堂, 登峰造極!

There are many "Disastrous Stars" (凶星) and only very few "Lucky Stars" (吉星) on your side this year. The "Lucky Stars" (吉星) are too weak to support you, thus you have to depend very much on yourself to survive this rough year. No matter what you do, you need to pay extra attention and be very sure before proceeding. The mistakes can be grave if not handled with care. It would be good if you can do the "Tai Sui" (太岁) and get a trustworthy monk or Thai Master to do a blessing to enhance your luck. You can also consider getting a Pi Xiu aka Tian Lu to bring along with you wherever you go and also to place one at home to stabilise your journey throughout the year. This will garner the support of some "Benefactors" (贵人) to help you along the way to help you defend against some "decrease the chance of "Xiao Ren" (小人) making situations worst for you.

There is a need to pay more attention to your loved ones, be more tolerant towards them. Try to lower down your pride, understand the problem, think of possible solutions and discuss calmly with your partner to settle issues peacefully. Health is poor this year, illness will fall upon you, thus seek early treatments before it becomes too serious to handle. If you can go for blood donation, please proceed without hesitation. Control your diet and have enough sleep, avoid excessive drinking.
